The Herzfeld Caribbean Basin Fund, Inc. Announces Revised Expiration Date for its Non-Transferable Rights Offering

Miami, FL - The Herzfeld Caribbean Basin Fund, Inc. (NASDAQ: CUBA) (the "Fund") announced a revised expiration date for its Non-Transferable Rights Offering that was originally announced on July 24, 2007. The offer will expire on October 26, 2007, rather than October 19, 2007 as previously announced. All other relevant dates remain unchanged.

The Record Date for the Rights Offering will still be September 26, 2007. Pursuant to the Rights Offering, the Fund will distribute to Record Date stockholders one non-transferable right ("Right(s)") for each share of the Fund held on the Record Date. For every Right that a stockholder receives, the stockholder may subscribe for one new share of the Fund ("Share(s)") at the subscription price. The number of Rights to be issued to a stockholder on the Record Date will be rounded up to the nearest whole number of Rights; no fractional Rights will be issued.

Rights holders may purchase one share of the Fund's common stock for every one Right held. Rights may be exercised at any time during the subscription period. The subscription period will begin on October 1, 2007, and end at 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on October 26, 2007 (the "Expiration Date"), unless the Rights Offering is extended. The subscription price per share will be set at 85% of the average volume-weighted closing sale price at which the common stock trades on the NASDAQ Capital Market on the Expiration Date and the four preceding trading days. In addition, Record Date stockholders who fully exercise their rights will be entitled to subscribe for additional shares of common stock ("Over-Subscription Shares"). The Over-Subscription Shares will be allocated pro rata to stockholders who over-subscribe based on the number of rights originally issued to them. The Fund may increase the number of shares of common stock subject to subscription by up to 100% of the primary subscription shares.

Subscription certificates evidencing the Rights and a copy of the Prospectus for the Rights Offering will be mailed to Record Date stockholders beginning on or about October 1, 2007. The Rights Offering will be effected only through the Prospectus.

The Fund has filed a registration statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The record, beginning and expiration dates of the Rights Offering are subject to the effectiveness of the Fund's registration statement. The definitive terms of the offer, including the estimated subscription price, will be contained in the Fund's prospectus for the offer.

Shares of closed-ends funds frequently trade at a discount to net asset value. The price of the Fund's shares is determined by a number of factors, several of which are beyond the control of the Fund. Therefore, the Fund cannot predict whether its shares will trade at, below or above net asset value.

Before investing in the Fund, investors should carefully consider the investment objective, risks, charges and expenses of the Fund. This information can be found in the Fund's prospectus on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. An investor should carefully read the Fund's prospectus before investing.

Participating stockholders will be required to initially pay for the Shares subscribed for in the offer as well as any additional shares subscribed for as part of the over-subscription privilege at the estimated subscription price.
